

I strongly oppose any weakening of the cross-ownership rules. We are already seeing the negative impact of large conglomerates owning dozens of radio and tv stations and other media outlets. Advertisers only have a handful of entities to choose from and viewers, listeners and readers have fewer points of view to choose from.